

New Lenox Alarmed By Hit-Run

New Lenox Boy Killed By Hit-Run Car

Tragedy struck in the Edward Gordon family residing on the Francis Rd. a mile north of New Lenox last Saturday evening, when their son Thomas, aged 10, was struck and instantly killed by a hit-run driver.

Thomas and his brother Floyd, 12 years old, had been gathering dandelions along Cedar Road for their rabbits and were walking along the edge of the pavement when suddenly an auto driven at high speed whizzed by hitting Thomas. His body was hurled a considerable distance. He evidently was killed instantly. He had a fractured skull, multiple fractures of the lower jaw, entire chin and mouth torn and lacerated, several teeth knocked out and a large section of the skull was broken out of left rear of head.

Floyd screamed when he saw his brother hit. Neighbors hearing his screams ran to him. They did not see the accident. Floyd was the only witness. He said the car was black and headed toward route 6.

He was taken home and told his story to the family. His brother in law Delphus Mattingly, 25, suggested that Floyd and he start out looking for this car. They cruised along Route 6 westward and about two miles down the road saw a late model black Ford car parked along side the pavement. When they got near the car, the driver suddenly pulled out and speeded down the road toward Joliet. Mattingly pursued the car until both cars were doing better than 70 miles an hour. When they got to the "J" yards both cars had to slow down and Mattingly got an opportunity to get close enough to get the speeder's license number. The license plate bore a Michigan license number BU 6105. The speeder wove in and out of traffic and nearly hit two other cars. He finally got away on Collins street.

Mattingly went direct to the sheriff's office and gave the information about the car and license number. The Illinois State Police radioed the Michigan State Police for information on the license number. The Michigan authorities radioed back that the license number mentioned had been issued to John Richard Olson for a 1941 Ford sedan. Olson's address was given as Detroit, Michigan and that he was employed at the Detroit Creamery. The Michigan police further said that Olson had left for the west coast and expected to be away for several weeks.

In the meantime the Illinois police have put out a radio dragnet notifying all police throughout the country to be on the lookout for above mentioned car giving the description of the car, license number also motor number which is No. 661899. Thus far no trace has been found of the car.

In addition to his parents Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gordon, Thomas is survived by three brothers, John, Wm. and Edwin, four sisters, Catherine, Helen, Clarabell and Joy and his grandmothers, Mrs. Grace Hendrickson and Mrs. Clara Gordon.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock from the Sonntag Funeral home in Joliet to the Ridgewood Baptist church with the Rev. L. M. Clark officiating. Burial was made in Oakwood.

They are 700 years Young

Here they are! Mable Hart's nationally famous "HOLLYWOOD ELDERLOVELIES", fresh from the grease rack, where they had the oil changed in their wheel chairs and new vulcanized patches put on their oxygen tents. Like all girls, they refuse to discuss their ages, saying simply "We're all old enough to vote the Straight Republican Ticket... and we DID!" (We hope General Grant thanked 'em!) Mabel, "Boss" and spark plug of the act, is second from the right. Looking much as she did as a New Lenox Schoolgirl in the '90's.

Please turn to page 9 for story and thumbnail biographies of each "Girl!"

"CHICK" PERKINS-KING

If the "ELDERLOVELIES" ever need another girl as an understudy may we proudly suggest "Chick" Perkins-King, the "Flying Grandma of Palos Park", who made her initial flight to New York at the tender age of 73!

The Bendix will fill itself with water, tumble the clothes clean, tumble rinse in three changes of water, dry clothes ready for the line or dryer, clean and empty itself and shut off all automatically while the housewife is free to do other work.

Over 300,000 homes in America already enjoy the washday freedom that a Bendix gives. The new Bendix has many new improvements, fourteen in all.

WILL HEADLINE THE TINLEY PARK CENTENNIAL PARADE OCTOBER 7TH

The Wilson & Co., 6 horse hitch will headline the Tinley Centennial parade on October 7th.

For many years, the six-horse hitch, internationally famous Clydesdale team of The Wilson & Co. of Chicago has been shown annually in hundreds of cities and at all of the leading livestock expositions. Since the outbreak of World War II, this hitch and the now famous "Bond Wagon" have been loaned to the Treasury Department in the interest of War Bond sales. Beginning with the second war loan drive, they have appeared in 15 states and over 14 million dollars in War Bonds have been attributed to this bond-selling device.

Mr. Thos. E. Wilson, Chairman of the Board of Wilson and Co., Inc. has been interested in Six-Horse Hitches of Clydesdales for well over 30 years. During the past few days Mr. Wilson received four additional Clydesdale geldings from their native home, Scotland, to be added to his internationally known stables. Mr. Wilson's interest in fine horses is of long standing and his famous stable has received many top honors at leading shows throughout the years at these 4 geldings from Scotland will certainly enable the Wilson stables to maintain its reputation as the finest of its kind anywhere in the world.

Mr. Frank E. Housley, veteran driver and trainer of the Wilson and Co. team, is internationally recognized for his achievements in this unusual profession. Frank has been driving six and eight horse hitches for over 45 years. To watch this prize horseless moving as a graceful unit, smoothly and easily through the most difficult maneuvers, is full evidence of the skill which Mr. Housley possesses. Frank began driving for Mr. Wilson in 1909 and since that time has toured most every state in this country, as well as giving several performances in Canada and the British Isles.

New Lenox Inc., Group Decries Lack of Speed Restriction

When our government lifted the 35 mile an hour speed limit it assumed that the local governments would restore adequate protection along the streets within its limits. What is New Lenox doing? Yes, what can it do without a government?

New Lenox streets are wide open. Drivers can sail through. There's no responsible body here who can decide what is "reasonable and proper" and take steps to provide the proper protection. Children are going or playing along our wide open streets every day of the year.

New and faster automobiles will soon be on the highways. There is talk of 100 octane gas for the American motorist. And high speeds are so easily misjudged. These cars will be tearing past our peaceful homes and we are laying ourselves open to other fatalities unless we restrict the speed to safe limits. But we can't do that without incorporation.

We are too late as far as Thomas Gordon is concerned, but let us resolve here and now to not fail the other children. Join the New Lenox Incorporating Committee at its October meeting. The date of the meeting will be published in the newspaper and in all public places. Everyone is invited. THE NEW LENOX INCORPORATING COMMITTEE

Lilah Kruspe, Publicity Chairman Eugene J. Yunker, S. L. and Ambrose Morganthal both of Orland Park on Raney's Lane met quite by accident in the Philippines where they have been for more than a year, not more than a few minutes distance from each other all this time. Ambrose was driving a truck when Eugene spotted him and it didn't take long before he was on the seat beside him and for a few minutes they thought that they were back in Orland Park. The boys manage to see each other as often as possible. It sure is great to meet someone from your home town.

The Community High School in Orland Park has an enrollment of 134 students and the Elementary School has 70.

The executive board members of the Orland Park PTA met in the office of the school Monday afternoon to make plans for a project. Recreation and Safety seemed to be the most stressed topics. The PTA hope to have something definite to offer the youth of the community in the near future. As for Safety, the PTA feel that some provision should be made for signs on the highway to slow down approaching the school. This matter was brought to the attention of the Village Board and we hope that "zone signs" will be placed near the schools very soon.

At a special meeting of the Loyal Camp No. 1796, R. N. A. held Monday evening in the Legion hall, Mrs. Roger Cox, Miss Mable Rust, Miss Virginia and Miss Jean Little of Worth were initiated. BATTLE-TORN LANDING SHIP BEGINS DOWNRIVER CRUISE

The Navy's Pacific war is coming home to Illinois.

A dramatic shipload of amphibious warfare will "hit the beach" in Joliet next Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 15 and 16, when the LST 512 docks at the foot of Van Buren St., there for a two-day public exhibition.

The battle-scarred tank-landing ship will make Joliet its first port of call on an inland waterway cruise after a summer-long tour of Great Lakes cities.

The big, bow-decked vessel, launched last year in Seneca, Ill., is manned by 200 combat veterans of the Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard.

The 328-foot tank carrier is packed with three decks of assault equipment, much of it unseen until now by the U. S. public.

Inland shipyards and war plants have built over 1,500,000 tons of shipping for the Navy since 1940, but the LST 512 is the first combat ship of this type to come back to the area in which it was built.

Crippled in the invasion of Normandy the 512 was towed back to the United States and refitted for its midwest tour. More than 20,000 persons a day can file thru the ship's cavernous interior during its daily visiting hours from noon to 9:30 p. m. Admission is free to everyone.

For the first time, home-front citizens in this area can see how the Navy fighters eat, sleep, live and serve a broad-based fully commissioned combat ship. All parts of the vessel are open to inspection.

Highlights of the ship's $3,000,000 in equipment and assault exhibits are the jungle outpost reconstructed of living tropical foliage by Marine Corps veterans of 40 Pacific invasions, and the Japanese, "baka bomb", captured on Okinawa. The bomb, a rocket-powered projectile piloted by Japanese suicide pilots, was taken by invading American forces before it could be used.

The 512 will stand into Joliet after its ten-day demonstration in Chicago closes Sept. 11. After its two-day showing in Joliet the camouflage-painted vessel will visit Ottawa for two days, Sept. 18 and 19, and Peoria for a 3-day demonstration, Sept. 21-22-23.

The Navy's biggest invasion ship was built and launched in Seneca in January 1944. A few weeks later it joined British-bound convoys and was assigned to the fleet readying for the assault on Normandy.

On D-Day at Normandy the 512 spilled troops, tanks and supplies ashore, and made 20 subsequent runs to the French coast with assault cargo, returning with wounded Allied soldiers and prisoners of war.

Beaching a cargo of needed supplies in October, the 512 was thrown a-thwart a steel pontoon causeway as it retreated from the beach in the teeth of a terrific storm. The ship's back was broken.

Chapter 1—Part 2 "Pop's Visits"

It sure was a relief to learn nothing was wrong, wasn't it?

The neighbors have all assured Pop that while he had to be away, everything would be alright and taken care of by them. Knowing that Pop in leaving, was realizing one of his life-time dreams, to visit America, grandma, Maria and Angela bid their beloved one a fond farewell. Not fully realizing why their papa was going away, Anna, aged 4, Maria 6, and Angela 5, bid "Bon Voyage" in a small hushed voice and in their own little way, regretted seeing their papa off.

After wine was once more passed around, accompanied by hand-shakes, the cart, over-burdened as usual for a small Burro to pull, prepared to leave, while from its rear, an Italian Journal fluttered unnoticed to the street, bearing a Rome date-line which bluntly stated, "War Clouds Loom Ahead!" "Fascists Become Stronger!" The beginning of the end of liberty in Italy.

A year never to be forgotten by the Italians. That is, by the Italians who favored Freedom, for that year saw two events take place: one of national significance, the other of no significance, except to those directly concerned.

First, of national concern—Italy's first major mistake, leading to its down fall—the formation of the Rome-Berlin Axis Oct. 25—the Axis against the world or so they boasted.

A Fiesta and Italy's Old Customs

Second, of little concern to the nation, but of major concern to San Giorgio, hence the main event, of our story, namely, Pop's return from his second visit to America. In America we'd call it a "Home-coming", but in Italy, the celebration was termed, a Fiesta, and followed every event of importance.

A person would have little, if any trouble finding the fiesta, for the accordion music, pleasing to the ear, could be heard for many miles on the quiet night air. Very little sleep was had by anyone that night! The little village was all aglow with lights, wine, women and song. Happy smiling faces were met at every turn. Music and plenty of food, what more could any one ask—This was pre-war Italy!

Anna Lutrario, a character in our story

CHAPTER 2

But the Fascist's Regime kept putting Italy's "Conquests" of Corsica, Tunisia, Ethiopia, Albania, and southern France before the Italian People, they kept printing, in boldtype, the "evils of capitalistic nations", like America, France and England. They cited, in details, instances: The Boar War—England; The Syrian Affair—France; The Mexican War—America. They would go as far as to say, the top notch scientists of these countries were either of German or Italian descent.

But Pop Lutrario wasn't fooled. He had seen America, had leaned from relatives, true conditions as did countless others. Pop had wished many times that the so-called "capitalism" would come to Italy. So when Angelo, then 15, came to his Pop that day, with the news of a small band of "Opposers of Fascism", later to be known as Partisaner Patriots, and asked if he could join, Pop gave his consent.

Also, promised Pop, he would give Mom a good excuse for Angelo having to be gone once or twice a week, secrecy was imperative.

Pop then informed Mom that Angelo would be away at a nearby farm studying the farm's and other problems of community, every Tuesday evening.

Tuesday evenings were picked for meeting nights of the Partisans. Angelo learned at the first meeting, that for the present, "elimination of small fry" Fascists would be their main jobs.

Pop had long ago heard of the "Opposers of Fascism", even before they had a name, back in, lets see now, it was 1920, when the Rome Fascists sent "Big Shot" Terrillo, to kind of "eliminate them". This, grinned Pop, was never accomplished. A couple of their brave number were tortured and eventually killed, when the officials could get no information for their trouble.

Terrillo was 40 now, mused Pop, but even those such officials as Joe Perron and Dick Terrillo still continued to live, many Fascists had paid for these two men's activities, many times.

to you from Germany, I hardly know how or where to begin. I am a combat, M. P. The end of March I decided I would like to try working 'steady K. P.' Then one of the former cooks offered to 'pull guard duty' so I asked if I might try and take the vacancy. Today I am a potential cook. I go on shifts with two cooks at noon, work till 7 o'clock, then usually I like to volunteer to round-up curfew violaters.

You've heard of ghost towns, of the west. Well, those towns have nothing on Germany's towns of today. Funny, there doesn't seem to be any Nazis any more around.

The people over here all live in bunkers, for most of their homes are gone. Abunker is nothing more than a huge underground subway made livable. You have seen how a ship's cabins are spaced a bunker is built along the same lines. There is a long hallway, with cabins (rooms) across from each other. All the walls are white-washed, spotless. The bunkers vary in size, the smallest I've seen thus far, holds 8 families, permanently. There are a variety of nationalities in these bunkers, most of them were slave labor, brought into the Reich to do work at gun-point or otherwise.

Off the Runway

Civil Air Patrol, Squadron 613-3
by 2nd Lt. Erlene Conel

OFF THE RUNWAY
Chicago Heights Airport! September 9th, with observer Cy Knudson, I flew a Cub from Rubinkam Airport to a friendly airfield nestled in the S. W. Corner of the city of Chicago Heights.

After "perching" the Cub and taxiing a bit, we "hung it on the line" just as Loren "Shorty" Thielman, the owner's son came up to greet us. "Shorty" must have been given that handle for the same reason a bald man is called "Curly", for he's lanky as a cowboy, and at the age of 17 has jurisdiction a plane to corral his Private Pilot's License. He's gunning now for his Instructor's rating.

Shorty, escorted us into the Flight Office to introduce us to "second in charge", his mom Mrs. Paula Thielman. She's a student pilot, and keeps everything in the office running "Alr" ship shape. Cy and I also met Leslie, Loren's "kid" brother, and Cappy, a gorgeous hunk of police dog, the kindly looking mascot.

"Walt" Thielman, owner of the airport, Flight Instructor and Commander of Civil Air Patrol Squadron 613-4 gave us Chicago Heights' Airport news. He recently flew to Oklahoma to bring back a twin engine Cessna, a government surplus ship, and one of the five now owned by the airport, which includes 3 Aerona Chiefs and a Fairchild; Chuck Zizick, another Instructor, helps Walt Thielman do a good job of bringing up "dodos" (students) and raising them to be capable Eagles, (private Pilots). The airport will soon have new individual hangars; Mechanic Geo. Kohler, not only can put planes together, he can test his own handiwork to his heart's content, he won his Private Pilot's rating from the Senior Inspectors at Rubinkam Airport on August 22nd.

Data for Airmen: Approaching Chicago Heights' airport, we circled the field at approximately 1000 feet and had a clear view of the runways. Later, in the flight office, we learned that the East West runway is 2950 feet by 350, N. S. 1200 by 500, N.E.S.W. 1550 by 500 and N.W.S.E. 1300 by 300.

The wind was almost directly from the south, but was light, so traffic was landing crosswind, East West, to use the longest runway, which by the way, has a deceptive incline around about the middle. To avoid flying low over the city when the wind is from S. W. to N. W. planes use a Right Hand Pattern.

News of Ford-Lansing airport. So far, September has hatched two brand new Private Pilots from Ford-Lansing with Floyd Ford, the Jr. Flight Examiner, who is also a Flight Instructor on the field, Sam Evett flew over to Joliet Airport to pass his with the Senior Inspectors. First solos, all in Cubs, were made by Dale Clinton Garrison, John Hazlett Garrison (no relations) and Mary Caplan Brown. Congratulations! See you upstairs.

News of Rubinkam Airport: Senior Instructor, Roy Cleveland has ok'd two Private Pilots since receiving his Jr. Inspector's Rating from the CAA. A first solo in a cub was made by Chas. Leisenfelt recently. The airport had some Servicemen visitors: Paratrooper Pfc. Bill Klein stopped in during his 30 day leave from the 13th Airborne division, which is scheduled to go to Japan! Bill has seen action in the European theatres, has several citations, and upon return to civilian life, is "definitely" going to take up Private flying; Capt. Frank Danely and Capt. Rollins Selling of the Army Air Force landed at Rubinkam on their way from Goldsborough, N. C. to Rhineland, Wis. Their "Seven League Boot" was an ATC Advanced Trainer that cruises at 190 miles an hour!

CAP Victory Air Show. Place, Rubinkam airport. Time October 13 and 14. Watch this column for full particulars. That's all for now.

How "It All Came True"

The show-stopping act we now know as the "HOLLYWOOD ELDERLOVES" was originally conceived as a delightful surprise for the lonely boys in our first Army Camps.

Here the home-hungry lads were treated to girly shows, music and laughter; but NO one seemed to think of bringing them something to remind them of the dearest of pals, their "Moms."

But then—ah!—enter the "ELDER-LOVES."

Imagine a group of supposedly staid, silvery haired old 'grammas', neatly gowned, sitting quietly at their knitting singing in cracked, quavery voices. "Darling I Am Growing Old", with every one giggling or whispering, "Aren't they SWEET?"

Then imagine the panic when, at a sudden crash of symbols, these fugitives from a wheel chair simply Leap to the footlights and render a jive version of "Flat Foot Floogie", including the whole crazy hodge podge of "Peckin'g", "Truckin'", "Rhythm Tap" and "Boomsa Daisy"! Add a rapid arrangement of "Dinah" by Ken Murray and a sweet swing number especially prepared for them by Bing Crosby, "Fanny Old Hills", then a riotous routine of "Can-Can", "Cake Walk" and "Jitterbug", and you have a Fair idea of what these grand little old ladies do. (All that is missing is the tremendous roar of laughter and deafening applause from a startled, amazed and completely delighted audience!)

When they were guest stars at the Orpheum Theatre in L. A., Jimmy Fidler raved so much about them to Billy Rose, that this mite sized Maestro immediately grabbed them for his fabulous "Casa Manana" one of California's swankiest night clubs.

From here they traveled to N. Y., where once again such a smash hit that they were immediately hired for two movies, Warner Brothers laugh hit "It All Came True" starring Ann Sheridan and Humphrey Bogart, and Universal's "Boy Meets Joy", with Pinky Tomlin.

Then came their Biggest break. That incomparable Showman, Ken Murray fell in love with these "Gallop'n' Grandmas", that he rewrote and streamlined their act to fit in as a snug unit in his phenomenal "Blackouts of 1941" (now '45)

The way Ken babies these glamorous "Indestructibles" you'd think each one was his Mom, and they in turn fume and worry over his health and comfort like nine fussy old setting hens mothering one impudent duckling!

Ah, it's a great place, this Hollywood where Every lassie get's whisked at by some Wolf in Cheap clothing.. (The only regret the Elderloves have is that the Wolves they get no longer whistle thru their Own teeth!)

Postwar Kitchen-Laundry to Banish Drudgery

Combination kitchen-laundry will save homemaker steps.

AS WAR BONDS accumulate, many farm homemakers are dreaming of beautiful, work-easy kitchens and light airy laundries on the first floor that will cut household drudgery, according to an article in nationally-circulated Capper's Farmer.

The combination kitchen-laundry pictured above was planned by a well-known electric equipment manufacturer to make those dreams come true. It is a sample of the improved appliances which will be available after the war, says the article in the magazine read by 1,250,000 farm families. The new laundry equipment will be attractive and the elimination of climbing basement stairs with baskets of clothes will justify the combination. Starting at the left side of the sketch is a power ironer, that will enable the homemaker to whiz through ironing in seemingly no time. Next is an automatic washer that does the clothes while she prepares dinner. An automatic drier is handy to receive damp clothes, then to tumble them dry in warm air. Beyond the sink a counter and 2 pull-out ventilated metal hampers make sorting clothes easy.

In the kitchen an electric range is conveniently near the dining-room door. The sink directly under the window is equipped with an automatic garbage disposal unit. Next to it is the electric dishwasher that takes care of a whole day's dishes at once. On both sides are cupboards. Base cabinets separate the dishwasher and electric refrigerator. In the center is a snack bar.

TOPS FOR INDIVIDUAL FLAVOR— HOME-MADE FRUIT PICKLES

Even when plentiful in the shops (try to find them now!), pickled fruits are costly and lack the flavor of a good homemade product. The commercial packers do a top notch job but it is a mass production proposition and must, for practical purposes, lack the touch of individuality found in good homemade pickles.

First-quality pear or peach pickles are plump and tender and the color of amber. The sirup, honeylike in thickness, is flavored to please one's own taste.

Here's a secret. Follow the recipe to the letter until you come to the spices, then go on your own. You dislike clove? Leave it out. You like ginger? Put it in. And if you can get them, use oil or essences of spices rather than the whole ones called for in recipes. The oils won't discolor the fruit, but go slow, a drop at a time. Those oils are expensive and as strong as "all-get-out!"

The nicest pears for pickling are seckels but any good, firm ripe ones will do. This is how:

- 1 gallon pears
- 6 cups sugar
- 2 cups water
- 4 cups vinegar
- 2 pieces ginger root
- 2 sticks cinnamon
- 2 tablespoons whole allspice
- 1 tablespoon cloves

Select firm pears. Pare and leave small ones whole; halve or quarter and core large ones. Boil 20 minutes in clear water. Boil sugar, water, vinegar, and spices (tied in bag) 10 minutes. Add pears. Let stand overnight. Cook until tender. Pack pears into hot jars. Cook sirup until thick. Pour over pears. Process 5 minutes in hot-water bath.

COUNTIES TO VOTE ON SCHOOL SURVEYS

One county in Illinois already has set a date for voting on the question of making a school survey as provided by the new School Survey law recently passed by the Illinois General Assembly.

The school board members of Edward county were scheduled to meet in August to vote on a school survey, according to an announcement received by John K. Cox, director of rural school relations for the Illinois Agricultural Association, from Virgil H. Judge, Edwards county superintendent of schools.

The School Survey Law requires the county superintendent of schools in each county to call together all school board members not later than Dec. 1, 1945, to vote on school surveys for their respective counties.

According to Cox, the new School Survey law differs from the 1941 law, which was set up for a two-year period, in three respects:

First, the new law appropriates more money for use by the county in making the survey. Second, it sets up a state commission to serve until Jan. 1, 1950, to assist and advise the various county committees with their surveys. Third, the new law provides that where surveys are made, and after public hearings on recommendations of county school survey committees are held, that the people of the communities affected be asked to vote on the final proposals submitted.

"The new School Survey law provides a means whereby local people can voluntarily bring needed reorganization," Cox said.

CROWS

From the Forest Preserve District of Cook County

On February 17, 1945, a forest preserve ranger and his son saw a snow white crow among a flock of black ones in the Elk Grove preserve. From time to time, for two or three years, people have been seeing this albino bird in that neighborhood. They say it seems tamer than the others and spends a good deal of time alone.

During last winter, several flocks of crows had their "roosts" in various forest preserves. In March these flocks broke up into pairs which have built nests and are laying eggs. There are from 3 to 5 eggs in each nest, rarely more. The incubation period for the eggs is 17 or 18 days. The young spend about 3 weeks in the nest. Only one brood is raised per year.

The crow has a bad reputation, but biologists who have spent their lives studying its habits say that his good points outweigh his bad points. Roughly 70 per cent of his diet is vegetable matter, including waste grain. Approximately 20 per cent consists of insects—particularly grubs and grasshoppers. The crow also helps the farmer by eating many field mice. He serves as a scavenger by eating the carcasses of dead animals, such as the rabbits, skunks and opossums killed on the highways.

The crow is bold, but wary and very smart. He has a reputation as a thief and a rascal. But no proof can be shown that he is a serious menace to song birds, upland game birds, waterfowl or agricultural crops.

Skillet Chicken and Rice Is Zestful Dish

IT'S chicken every Sunday and oftener, once the family has tasted Skillet Chicken and Rice, says Marjorie Griffin, rural home editor of Capper's Farmer, a farm magazine of national circulation.

As the ingredients cook together, the rice takes on an added flavor. Served in a white fluffy mound, surrounded or topped with a tender, browned piece of chicken, this rice combination is an appetite-tempting favorite. Parsley sprigs and red paprika give it added color appeal, the Capper's Farmer expert points out.

Skillet Chicken and Rice

- | | |
|-----------------|---------------------|
| 1 fryer | 1/2 c. fat |
| 1/2 c. flour | 3 c. boiling water |
| 1/2 tsp. salt | 3/4 c. rice, washed |
| 1 tsp. paprika | 1 onion |
| 1/2 tsp. pepper | parsley |

Cut chicken into serving pieces; rub with mixture of flour, salt, pepper and paprika. Brown in the hot fat. When well browned, reduce heat, add boiling water and onion (or 1 clove garlic). When chicken is about one fourth done, sprinkle rice over it. Cover tightly. Cook gently until chicken is tender, rice is fluffy and tender, and water is evaporated—1 to 1 1/2 hours. Remove onion. Serves 5 to 7 depending on size of bird.

Sharp Characters Act At Ease With Others

WHY is a sharp character sharp and why is a sad sack sad? Why do some guys and girls seem at ease with others? Why do others with just as many assets seem to be beating their brains out trying to decide what to do with their hands? It's all a matter of learning to control your outward actions, no matter how awkward you feel, says Holly Miller, whose column in nationally circulated Capper's Farmer is a popular feature among teen age boys and girls as well as their elders.

"The smoother you act, the smoother you feel," she counsels.

"To be well-groomed may cost you an effort, but don't let it show. Mend your clothes by midnight oil, get up at dawn to press your suit, spend half an hour before your mirror getting your make-up right—if you must. Then forget your appearance.

"Boys, that means no fussing with ties and trying to make a crease where there should be one. Girls, that means no peeking in mirrors, no patting your hair, no pulling of clothes and straightening of stocking seams."

Among Miss Miller's suggestions for cultivating poise and ease are: Stand up straight; Look 'em straight in the eye; Avoid mannerisms; Don't talk with your hands.

"Beat your gums—but not so loud," she advises. "A shrill, loud voice is curdling to the spirit. On that same subject, resounding giggles and horselaughs are strictly for the birds."
